RE: United States v. Hanratty, 24 Cr. 153 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

I represent Defendant John Hanratty in the above-captioned action and write to respectfully request that the Court amend its May 6, 2024 “Order” granting in part Mr. Hanratty’s “Motion” to modify bail conditions, to which neither the Prosecution nor Pretrial Services objected. See Dkt. 25 (May 6, 2024).

Mr. Hanratty’s Motion asked the Court to modify his bond conditions to allow him to travel throughout the United States and Puerto Rico, so long as he had Pretrial’s prior approval. See Dkt. 24 (May 1, 2024). The Motion included Puerto Rico because Mr. Hanratty lives in Puerto Rico. However, the ensuing order included only the continental United States, not Puerto Rico. See Order.

Because Mr. Hanratty has lived in Puerto Rico for several years and continues to live in Puerto Rico, but travel to the continental United States to honor his Court, family, and work obligations, we respectfully request that the Court either (a) amend its Order or (b) issue a new order allowing Mr. Hanratty to travel within both the continental Untied States and Puerto Rico, so long as he has obtained Pretrial's prior approval. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kari Parks
